Mujer/Woman is an art exhibition that explores the subject of women. What women represent is examined through a range of works that include realistic interpretations to conceptual, iconic, spiritual, and lyrical musings. The artists in this exhibition tackle the theme with the same skilled expertise they apply to the media they use to reflect their expansive perspectives. The voice of the poets will also be heard during the reception to share their poetic musings on the theme. Mujer/Woman was curated by Janice Anderson and Toni Thomas.

Featured visual artists include:

Adrienne Wheeler, Aura Highsmith, Bisa Washington, Eira Arrate, Gladys Grauer, Janice Anderson, Jody Lee, Kathleen Heron, Krystle Lemonias, Lynn Presley, Lorena La Grassa, Nancy Michielle Martinez, Sadee Brathwaite, Sheltry Ward, Shirley Parker Benjamin, Shonda Nicholas, Terry Boddie, Toni Thomas and Ujima Majied.

Featured poets include: Elaine Lee, Esther Morales, M. Malcolm King and Shonda Nicholas
